Re: United States of America v. Jason Servis, 20 Cr. 160-10 (MKV)

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

I represent Mr. Jason Servis, who is currently on release pending the above-referenced prosecution. Mr. Servis's release conditions have certain travel restrictions. We respectfully seek permission for Mr. Servis to travel to, and remain in, Charles Town, West Virginia, from September 2, 2020 to September 6, 2020 to visit his parents and assist in performing household chores.

Mr. Servis intends to drive to his parents' home at 9 Berkeley Ct., Charles Town, West Virginia on September 2, 2020, and to return to New Jersey on September 6, 2020. He has not seen his parents—both of whom are in their late-eighties—since October 2019.

Both AUSA Sarah Mortazavi and Pretrial Services Officer Asst. Dayshawn Bostic have indicated that they do not object to this application and have authorized us to inform the Court of this development.

Thank you for considering this request.

Sincerely yours,

Defendant Jason Servis's bail conditions are modified to permit travel to and from Charles Town, West Virginia on the dates mentioned in the letter. SO ORDERED.
